Exercise VI

I would like to tell you about my pet. It's a dog. His its name is Spot. He's over ten years old and we have had him since for ten years. My parents got him when I was about three years old age. They decided to have a dog, because they believe in that a child should have a pet. They also think that dogs are best, as you must have to really look after them: feed them, take them across for walks, brush their hair (or even teeth) and play with them. It is a big responsibility, but also well great fun. We treat our dog as a member of the family. He wants to take up part in everything we do. When I am sad, he does comes up to me and wants to cheer me up by putting his head on my knees or licking my cheek. I am truly love my dog.
